LINE-X permanently bonds to your truck bed, with a factory-like finish that follows every angle and curve to preserve precious cargo space while creating a watertight seal. 6.	1974 Kansas DU Gun of the Year	This is the first year that the Remington 870 was offered as one of the Ducks Unlimited edition "Dinner Guns." There were only 10,000 of these guns made which is very low considering the 870 is the most popular pump shotgun in the world. This beauty here tonight is in very good to excellent condition and has never been fired except at the factory prior to its release to DU. The 870 is chambered for 2 ¾ inch shells and sports a fixed full choke.	What a gem for a fine gun collection!

8.	2012 KS DU Gun of the Year	Presenting the 2012 KS DU gun of the year the CZ 912! The CZ 912 is built with a high gloss finish and has a very sleek look with attractive lines both on the alloy receiver and on the walnut stock. The modern style recoil pad provides for not only a significant reduction in perceived recoil, but it is snag free as well. A long recoil spring is located in the butt of the stock that simplifies assembly and allows it to cycle a wide variety of loads across the power spectrum both 2 ¾" and 3". In addition the rearward spring design makes required cleanings less frequent and easier when they are needed. Removal of the installed magazine plug is simple, requiring only the magazine cap to be unscrewed. Without the plug, it gives the upland hunter a 4+1 capacity. Very well balanced and with an average weight of 7.4 pounds, it's well suited to the pursuit of both birds and clays.	Be the envy of all of your hunting buddies!

Aldean March 17,

comes out quite like anyone else. The blues-tinged licks at the end of his phrases—there’s a ring of familiarity about them, but you can’t really link them to another artist. The smoky guitar riffs that have become a signature—they’re built on sounds that have come before, but they don’t really belong to anyone else in the country genre, either. The small-town themes that pervade many of his songs—that’s all been done before, but not quite with the unwavering honesty that Aldean applies to the subject. Winner will receive 2 individual tickets in a suite.
